

Kate McCrickard is a painter, printmaker and writer based in Paris, France.

Education:

University of Edinburgh, Scotland

MA Honors Degree in Fine Art, First Class Honours 1998

John Kinross scholarship and MacLean Watters medal 1998

Sir John Ford Travel Scholarship to Spain, 1998

BTEC Diploma, Foundation Course, Bradford College of Art, West Yorkshire

Collections:

The Metropolitan Museum of Art

The New York Public Library,

The British Museum

Los Angeles County Museum

The Davison Art Centre, Wesleyan University, Connecticut

The Royal Scottish Academy, Edinburgh

Exhibitions:

2023 New Romantics, solo show at Art First, London, March 8th - April 28th

2023 Art on a Postcard, War Child auction. Hepatitis C Trust, London

2022 London Art Fair, British Art Fair, London Original Print Fair, Paris Print Fair, Woolwich Print Fair

2021 Art on a Postcard, summer auction. Hepatitis C Trust, London

2021 The John Kinross 40th Anniversary Exhibition, The Royal Scottish Academy, Edinburgh

2021 A Small Good Thing, online exhibition curated by artist Sam Luke Heath

2020 "Winter Exhibition" Royal Academy, London, print room selected par R.A. Eileen Cooper